

In Loving Memory of Our Beloved Angel

A BRIGHTER DAY

*OUR LOVED ONE'S RESTING, LABOR'S DONE
HAVE FOUND A HOME BEYOND THE SUN
THEY'VE FOUND THE GIFTS THEY'VE LABORED FOR THE RICHES GIFTS OF HEAVEN'S STORE.*

*THEY'VE FOUND SWEET PEACE AND QUIET REST
AND LIVE AND MOVE AMONG THE BLESSED,
WE GRIEVE FOR THEM, YET SURELY THEY HAVE FOUND A BRIGHTER DAY.*

OBITUARY

Damain Andre White Jr.

Damain Andre White Jr., was born in Toledo, Ohio on August 14, 1993 to Amelia Works and Damian Andre White Sr. He earned his wings on April 4, 2018 at St. Anne's Hospital.

Damain "BooBoo", a single young man, alumni of Start High School, and employee of Libbey Glass Factory, musical poet, and athlete. He enjoyed making music, playing basketball, cracking jokes, and eating cheese. His favorite song "Never Would've Made it", was a prime example of his God fearing ways, and his will to fight.

Damain was very family oriented and had a close relationship with God, in which he valued life at a very young age. He was loyal to his friends, family and what he believed in. He had a big heart and a smile that could light up a room. Above all, his biggest motivation was his daughter, Mari; their bond was unbreakable and he'd stop at nothing to make her happy. His love for his daughter was unexplainable, and her love for him was nothing less. We will cherish his love forever.

He is preceded in death by Audrey Bell (Queenie), Washington Lee, Andre Gray III, Audrey Wright (O' Ay) and Rosslyn White. Left to cherish his loving memory is his devoted family; mother, Amelia Works; father, Damian Andre White Sr.; daughter, Damariah White; sisters, Karreen Gray, Taylor Works, Jasmine Works, Jashia Johnson, Dene Glover, and Nakayla White; brothers, Andre White, Emmanuel Johnson, Awnree Works, Zion Works, Damahji Glover, Stanili Glover, and Mckai White, and a host of nieces and nephews, and other family and friends.
