Obituary

A woman named Catherine Wilson, affectionately known as "Cat", departed this life on December 28, 2018 surrounded by her loved ones at Hospice of Northwest Ohio, Toledo.

Catherine was born to Boss Clinkscale and Ludie Johnson-Clinkscale on May 13, 1935 in Hazard, Kentucky. Catherine graduated from Liberty High School on May 27, 1954, in Hazard Kentucky which was also the year she met and married James D. Price Jr., which she has seven blessed children by.

Catherine started the "Family Group Gospel Fire" where they sang praises in many churches throughout the city of Toledo and Michigan. Catherine also loved putting on Christmas and Easter programs where the kids would say speeches.

Catherine was a faithful member of Friendship Baptist Church until her health failed. She loved to talk and was a very kind and gentle person. She was always ready to give advice. So many kids called her mom.

Catherine was an excellent cook and loved to sew and make clothes. She was very fashionable and loved to make floral arrangements. She loved collecting fine glassware and shopping.

Return

*To My Beloved Mother, Catherine Wilson, on your way back home
Thank you for the gift of Christ you introduced to us a long time ago.*

We've seen your pain, suffering, depression and grief.

We've also seen you Divinity.

Your love for Jesus, his word, his spirit,

His inspiration that helps us to hear it.

And so it is, I realize my Prayer Ministry began at your bedside, unbeknownst to me.

As a young girl being called into Christ Ministry.

I've witnessed many mysteries to the miracles in your life, on the job training, evolving through Christ.

As for my siblings and I, you took us to Church, teaching us always to put God first.

You led us to the water to be baptized, knowing that only God could open our eyes.

Now respecting your process to return back Home.

Return to your sender, Mama.

Jesus is waiting, he knows.

You have earned your two wings to fly away, your feet have been taken out the Miry Clay.

Eternal Love Mother,

Rev. Katheryn Que' Price, Foundress Christ Inspirational Ministries
