

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me;

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,

I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me,
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.

Obituary

Barry Hite, 66 of Toledo, Ohio received his heavenly wings on early Friday morning June 8, 2018. He took his last breath at his home. He was born February 14, 1952, in Pine Bluff, Arkansas to the union of late Thelma Franklin- Hite (nee' Bauknight) and Sylvester Hite.

Barry was a social, active man who was deeply involved at Lott Industries for over 25 years until its closing in December 2018. He then transferred to Wiley Home Inc. until his passing. He enjoyed watching TV, Sunday Church Services and bowling. His passion for bowling lead to invitation to the Special Olympics. His family and friends will always remember him as a witty, caring, charismatic, very easygoing, and quiet person. In addition, Barry had some favorite sayings when was Happy Oh Sh*T, Make It Snappy Woman (Man), Hurry Up. When he was in great mood he would be humming Bop, Bump, Bump, Bubbly.

He was truly favored and kept by God. The medical community told the family he would not survive past the age of six. He proved them wrong without the aid of any modern medicine, and gave us an additional 60 years.

Barry was preceded in death by his parents the late Thelma Franklin-Hite (nee' Bauknight) and Sylvester Hite; maternal grandmother, Blanche Clegg; brother, Charles Johnson; sisters, Betty Boyd, Ruth Ann Franklin, Mattie McCaster.

He is survived by his sisters, Marva Bauknight, Louise Birch (Phoenix AZ), Marilyn (Melvin) Dotson, and Sylvia Hite, all of Toledo, OH; one brother, Ronnie Hite, of Toledo, OH. He also left a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

MUSICAL POSTLUDE

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

— Psalm 23:1-6 (KJV)
