*We turn to thee Almighty God, in this time of grief, we do not beg for comfort and we do not ask relief; we only seek thy courage and the strength to bear our sorrows, so that we might still fulfill our places and carry on tomorrow.
We do not want to drop our crosses or fall beside the way just give us grace to serve thee God, for still another day; let not our bodies weaken now, let not our minds grow weary, however much your skies seem to be more dark and dreary, enable us to do thy will however great our losses and as your humble servants, God help us bear our crosses.*
