

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road

And the sun has set for me

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little—but not too long

And not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared,

Miss me—but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take

And each must go alone.

*Love,
Your Family*

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before*

Obituary

Joyce Jaynes-Thornton was born in Toledo, Ohio December 19, 1957 to Embra and Josephine (Wallace) Jaynes and entered into eternal rest on November 18, 2018 in her home. She was the second oldest girl of six children. She was preceded in death by both parents, one brother, Lester Leonard; one sister, Janet Jaynes; one niece, Aparis Jaynes.

Joyce was born and raised in Toledo, Ohio. A graduate of Edward Drummond Libbey High School, Class of 75. Joyce was a licensed Cosmetologist. She loved going shopping with her granddaughters.
