"To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me"

When I am gone, release me. Let me go, I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, be happy, we had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess, how much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled alone.

So, grieve a while for me if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless those memories in your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on, so if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near with all my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome You Home".

Obituary

Life is but a stopping place...a pause in what's to be...
A resting place along the road to sweet eternity.

Janie A. Horn-Smith, age 68, went to be with her Lord and Savior on December 20, 2018. Janie was born in Whatley, AL to Ora Dee and Uriah Horn on December 12, 1950.

Affectionately known as China, Janie loved to travel and dedicated her life to supporting her family and close friends. A 1968 graduate of Thomas A. DeVilbiss High School, she later went to work at Pilkington (Libbey-Owens-Ford) and retired after more than 30 years of service. She was a longtime member of Southern Missionary Baptist Church, a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, daughter, aunt, sister, and friend. She will be greatly missed by all who loved her.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Artis M. Smith; father, Uriah; sister-in-law, Charity; and niece Mickiah.

Janie leaves to cherish her memory, daughters, Kendra and Tiandra; grandchildren, Duane Horn-Cross, Jazlyn Van Pelt, Talaysia and Asia Horn, and Avah Poelnitz; parents, Nathaniel and Ora Dee Taylor; brothers, Uriah (Kennesaw, GA), Johnny (Carolyn) and Kenneth Taylor; sister, Wanda; one nephew, many nieces, and a host of cousins and friends, including her dearest friend Dorothy Jones.
