

A Mother's Song
 Sing me a song mother
 Tell me how you got up early to make sure i was fed
 Sing me a song mom
 Tell me how every night, you would pray with me before bed
 Sing me a ong mommy
 I wanted a toy, but you said I needed a sweater
 I was the only one that did not get sick
 From palying with our toys in the cold and snowy weather
 Sing me a song mama
 I remember crying all night because I didn't make the team
 You told me don't worry keep your head up
 Because God has a plan for me
 Sing me a song Madre
 Food always on the table, clothes alwyas on my back
 When I had questions about my life, you told me some facts
 When I got my heart broken, you were there for my pain
 You kept me smiling when sunny days turned into rain
 Continue to sing to me, as I listen to your warm voice
 When i had decisions to make
 You encouraged me to make the right choice
 When I couldn't sleep, because of high fever and sore chest
 You were there to aid me through sickness so I could rest
 A mother is not a title but a mixture of jobs
 From wife, cook, friend, nurse, counselor, and especially a mom
 There is not enough words to describe what you mean to me
 If I was blind, I know you would be my eyes so I could see
 If I had no legs, you would do my walking
 If I had no tongue, you would do my talking
 Because that is what you showed me form the start
 But remember where your qualities came from
 It was your own mother's song

Obituary

Eva Flowers returned to the oneness of God peacefully early Monday morning, December 31, 2018, after being surrounded by loving family members at her bedside. She was 80 years young and the 13th Of 14 children, seven brothers and six sisters. She was born September 3, 1939 in Holmes County, Durant, Mississippi. She was the daughter of the late Wiley and Sarah (Rogers) Horton.

Eva was a homemaker for most of her married life and spent years volunteering at the schools her children attended. She was a member of the PTA and NAACP. She was very active in her community and loved working with children. Her work as a school Parent Liaison was appreciated by many.

She enjoyed writing poetry and sending letters and short notes of inspiration to family and friends. She also enjoyed gardening and often invited her grandchildren, nieces and nephews to "help out in the garden" when they came to visit. Her homemade wheat rolls, apple pies and zucchini bread were family favorites. Her welcoming, kind, generous and sweet spirit made her a "neighborhood mom."

Two of her favorite sayings were "Keep the Faith" and "The Biggest Room is The Room for Improvement". Eva Fairy Flowers was a loving, supportive and faithful wife, mother, sister and friend. May God be pleased with the way she lived her life and how she helped so many throughout her time among us.

Eva is survived by her husband Ernest Flowers to whom she had been married to 56 years and they had five children: Ernest Lenell Jr., Donald (Dana), Audrey (Polymin), Vincent (Nkenge), and Broyny (Derek). She is also survived by three siblings Ruth Davis, Clara McGee, and Virgie Smith. She leaves a legacy of fifteen grandchildren Trae, Ashawanty, Rasul, Shanelle, Janelle, Ayanna, Erykah, Danielle, Hasana, Faheem, Jaleel, Nia, Nyah, Amiya and Makayla, and two great-grandchildren: Marriah and Traevon.
